

Glasgow Women's Library What's On: Autumn/Winter 2011

Glasgow Women's Library
15 Berkeley Street, Glasgow G3 7BW
0141 248 9969 info@womenslibrary.org.uk
www.womenslibrary.org.uk
Registered Company No: 178507 Charity No: SC029881

Celebrating twenty years of
Glasgow Women's Library

Welcome to the Glasgow Women's Library What's On Guide for Autumn & Winter 2011.

Below you will find a list of our events and activities for Autumn & Winter. Everything is colour coded to make things easier: full details of all events are detailed in the different coloured sections of the programme. Take a look inside and see what you can be a part of!

SEPTEMBER

- 8 Oral Histories Workshop
- 14 & 17 Living Classrooms
- 16 West End Walk and Talk
- 19 Doors Open: Necropolis Map Launch & Walk
- 20 BME Film: Arranged
- 21 GWL 20th Anniversary!
- 23 Hysterical Women & Graphic Girlz Exhibition
- 26 Herstory Scrapbooking
- 26 Wigtown History Walk
- 26 Wigtown Podcast Launch
- 30 Hysterical Women & Graphic Girlz Talk

OCTOBER

- 1 Women Leading through Reading Launches
- 5 Researching Local Women's History
- 6 Dreamscapes
- 6 Rhyme for a Reason
- 11 Twenty Years of Making You Think
- 13 Visit to Scottish Screen Archives
- 14 Blue Black Permanent
- 10 & 17 Memories of our Mothers, Future Dreams
- 17 Body Talk
- 18 BME Film: West is West
- 27 She Settles in the Shields

NOVEMBER

- 5 Lesbian Activism on Screen
- 8 Lesbian Avengers
- 10 Book4Book
- 17 Gender Shift: Women Who Make Men
- 28 Scottish Women's Aid 35th Anniversary Exhibition Launch

DECEMBER

- 1 to 10 Scottish Women's Aid 35th Anniversary Exhibition
- 21 Short and Sweet

Glasgow Women's Library, 15 Berkeley Street, Glasgow G3 7BW
Tel: 0141 248 9969 Email: info@womenslibrary.org.uk
www.womenslibrary.org.uk

Cover image taken at GWL Auction of Pleasures, September 2010

About Us

Two Decades of Changing Minds

Women's Words

Women Make History

Festivals, Launches and Screenings

Scotland Wide

Getting Involved

About Us

Who we are and what we do

Glasgow Women's Library is no ordinary library. It is unique in Scotland and a National treasure! The Library celebrates the lives and achievements of women, and champions their contributions to Scotland's culture.

This vibrant information hub is open to all, and is home to a lending library and archives as well as providing an exciting range of events, activities and courses.

In this programme you will find lots of events and activities that represent these different areas of the Library's work.

All of our events and activities are complemented by the materials we have in the library and archive collections.

In addition to the events and activities we run in the Library the Adult Literacy and Numeracy project continues to support women, one to one, in developing their reading, writing and number skills. Women who use the service come with a wide range of skills and confidence, some starting to develop their reading skills and other hoping to attend further education. We also provide groupwork and run events detailed throughout this programme. Contact Dawn or Pauline at the Library for more information.

English as a Second or Other Language (ESOL) classes take place every week in the library in partnership with Langside College. If you would like more information on these contact us and we will pass your details on to Celia who runs these classes.

You can join the Library for free. Information on joining and borrowing can be found in the 'Getting Involved' section of this programme along with details of volunteering at the library and joining our learner forum.

For more information on any of our projects or services please feel free to contact the library on 0141 248 9969 or email us at info@womenslibrary.org.uk or visit our website at www.womenslibrary.org.uk

Why not pop in and see us at Glasgow Women's Library 15 Berkeley Street, Glasgow G3 7BW

You can also find us on Facebook and Twitter (@gwilkettle)

Did you know that you can help the library survive, improve & grow?

Why not become a Friend of the Library by donating £5 a month to help us deliver life changing programmes, provide a place for women's history and achievements to be recorded and keep our doors open to all. As a friend you can access all our learning programmes for free, are kept up to date with news and will be invited to special friends gatherings.

Our Women on the Shelf campaign is a chance to help us create a fit-for-purpose home for the Library's collections, staff, learners and visitors. Donate £10 to sponsor a book, £100 sponsors a shelf and for £1000 you can sponsor a section. Each can be dedicated to inspiring and memorable women.

Information about how you can get involved with the Library's activities, join the Library for free, or become a volunteer is detailed in the 'Getting Involved' pages at the back of this programme.

Two Decades of Changing Minds

Marking twenty years of Glasgow Women's Library

It's the Library's twentieth anniversary on Wednesday 21 September 2011 and to mark this wonderful milestone we are launching a year of events, exhibitions and celebrations!

The programme will include exhibitions from our unique collections, the creation of new work by women artists and writers and reflections by all who have visited, used and volunteered, on the achievements of GWL over twenty years.

Events and activities to look out for taking place from September 2011 to September 2012 will include: The display of 20 portraits of library users, an online exhibition of 20 images marking significant milestones in the Library's life, 20 new prints and 20 new pieces of writing inspired by items and texts from our collection and much more.

We will be revamping and relaunching our website to celebrate this anniversary. So be sure to visit us online after 21 September at:
www.womenslibrary.org.uk

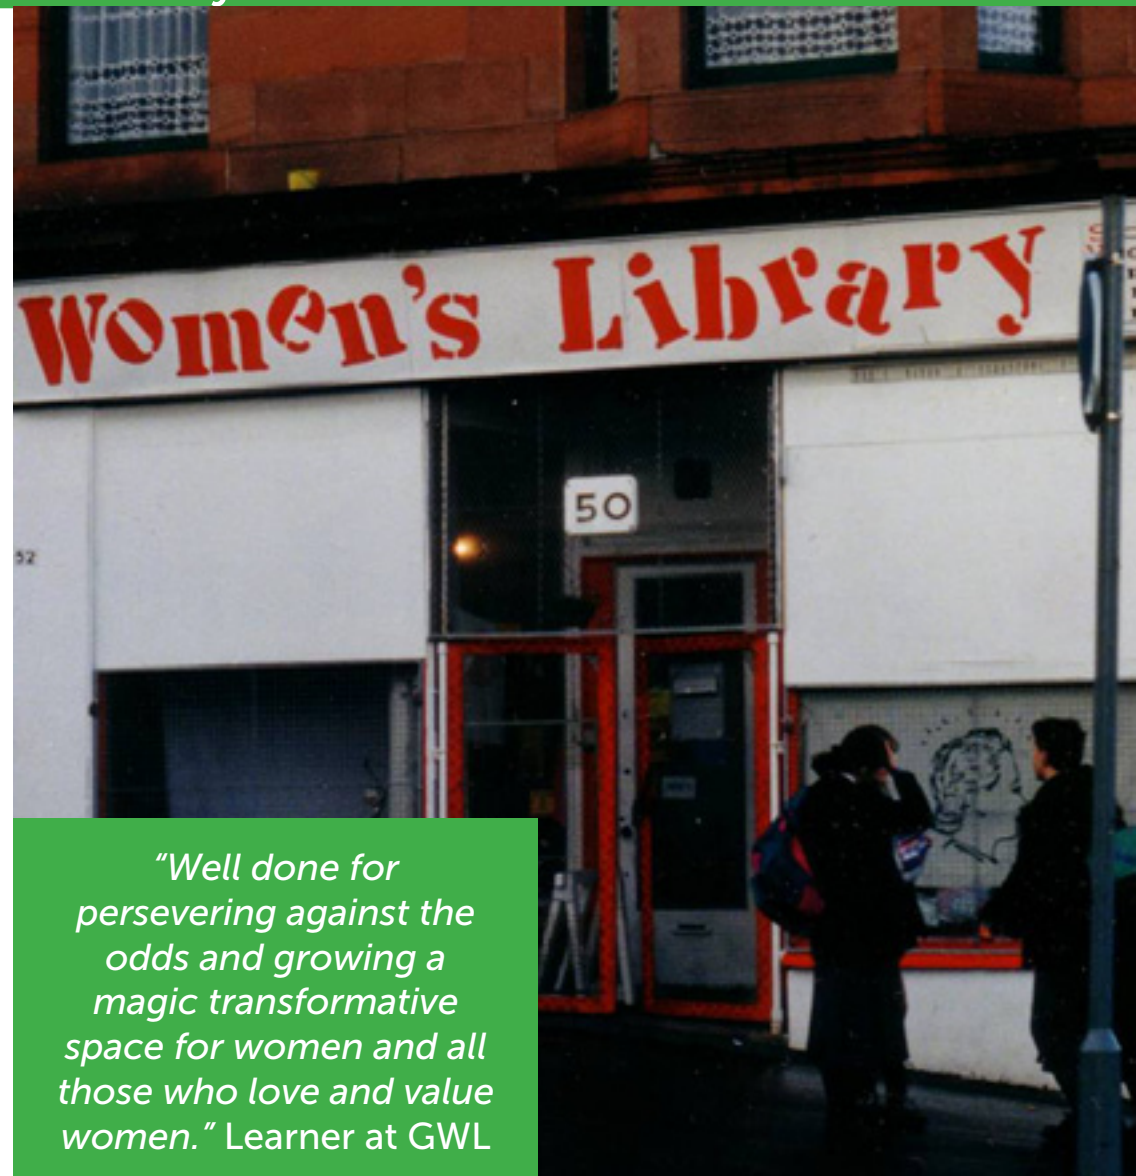

You can also check the website for details of what's on and how to add your memories of the Library.

Contact us for more information on our planned celebrations.

Twenty Years of Making You Think Tuesday 11 October, 1pm at the library

Part of the Scottish Mental Health Arts and Film Festival and to mark our anniversary we are holding an event for you to come and share your stories of the library and hear other people's with a backdrop of inspiring materials that chart the library's history.

Details on how to book in the 'Getting Involved' section at the back of this booklet or contact us for more information on 0141 248 9969 or info@womenslibrary.org.uk

"Well done for persevering against the odds and growing a magic transformative space for women and all those who love and value women." Learner at GWL

Women's Words

Reading, sharing and discovering a world of women's writing

Phenomenal Women poetry event at the library

Short and Sweet Wednesday 21

December, 2pm (free)

Banish the winter blues and join us on the shortest day of the year for National Short Story Day. We'll be listening to and chatting about some wonderful short stories from the Library collection. Bring along your favourite short story by a woman to share with us and tell us why you love it. What better way to spend a cold, winter's afternoon?

My Life in Books Tuesday 23 August,

6pm to 7.30pm (£3/free)

The second in our series of events looking at the role of books in women's lives. Following on from our successful crime fiction event, this will focus on when books come late in women's lives. There will be contributions from well-known women who discovered the joys of reading after education as well as audience discussion.

Check out our 'Festivals, Launches and Screenings' pages for more events on women's work in poetry, film, activism and more!

Book4Book
Thursday 10
November,
5.30pm.
(£5/free)

Bring a book. Bring yourself. Grab a cuppa. Grab a seat. Have a listen. Have a chat at GWL's first Book4Book event!

Most literary establishment prizes are handed to male writers, leaving the lyricism of the female voice unheard and unacknowledged. We want to celebrate those voices in all their individuality and wisdom - to showcase female writing across its wide spectrum, from emergent writers to those who are well known.

So bring along your favourite book by a female author, have a chat with the writers from Linen Press and maybe swap your book 4 someone else's!

Book tickets through the Linen Press website or GWL. Contact us for more information or visit the Linen Press website:
www.linenpressbooks.com

Gender Shift: Women Who Make Men Thursday 17 November, 6pm to 7.30pm (£3/free)

A conversation on the creation of male characters by women between Drag King Pioneer Diane Torr and acclaimed Scottish writer Zoe Strachan.

Diane Torr has been teaching women how to dress and pass as men on city streets around the world for twenty years. Zoe Strachan has recently published her third novel and has, for the first time, created a gay male protagonist. What happens when women 'inhabit' the bodies and psyches of men? What can be learnt by undertaking this gender shift and how has this work, along with the work of other women writers and performers playing with sex and gender, impacted on ideas of gender and masculinity.

Diane Torr: Sex, Drag and Male Roles

Women Make History

Exploring the hidden histories of Glasgow's women

Women Make History Workshops (£3/free)

Continuing our popular workshops on women's history with sessions on oral histories, violence against women and more. (women only)

Mrs Boone talks at War Brides event

Oral Histories Part 2 Thursday 8 September, 6pm to 7.30pm (£3/free)

Following on from our successful session in June there will be a chance to practice recording and to have a go at transcription. New comers welcome to join us.

Contact us on 0141 248 9969 or email info@womenslibrary.org.uk for more information on events.

Visit to the Scottish Screen Archives

Thursday 13 October,
2pm to 4pm (£3/free)

Our popular drop-in Women Make History group will be going out and about again, this time visiting the amazing Scottish Screen archives, home of the filmed records of Scotland's social, cultural and industrial history and the lives of ordinary Scots across the generations. This sister archive has 32,000 items including documentaries, newsreels, television and public information films and advertising; we'll have a tour and a taste of their films about and by women.

16 Days of Action Thursday 1 December, 6pm to 7.30pm (£3/free)

The women's movement has had many successes over the decades, although often the ongoing experiences of discrimination can make it feel as though little ground has been made. This event will highlight the violence against women campaign in Glasgow and Scotland, and claim it as one of the real success stories of the movement. Using some of the documents from our unique collections at GWL we will chart the VAW campaign's growth over the past 30 years. We will explore its influences in both Government and public attitudes towards the continuing phenomenon of men's violence against women and children, with discussion about what the future could hold.

Glasgow in the Making: Women's West End Walk & Talk Friday 16 September, 2pm to 4pm (£7.50)

For Glasgow in the Making we are holding our pioneering women's heritage walk revealing a hidden history of the West End of Glasgow. A unique and inspiring insight into the hitherto unsung women who made the West End. Followed by refreshments and discussion at the Albany Learning and Conference Centre.

Illustration by Heather Middleton for the West End Women's Podcast

Our West End Women's Heritage podcast walk is also available to download for just £3 from our website at: womenslibrary.org.uk

We are also holding additional 16 Days & Women Make History sessions across Scotland and launching our new Necropolis Women's Heritage Map during Doors Open Weekend. Check out the 'Scotland Wide' and 'Festivals, Launches & Screenings' pages for more information.

"I joined the GWL West End walking tour and am now a signed up fan! What an inspiring and enlightening evening. Really fascinating. The guides were wonderful and made it so interesting and entertaining. Have been telling all my friends to go since." Participant on walk

Festivals, Launches and Screenings

A packed programme of exciting and inspiring events

The Scottish Mental Health Arts and Film Festival presents RE: Mind
GWL links with a weekend of free events exploring themes of memory, identity and dreams. RE: Mind is a melting pot of creative organisations and artists pushing boundaries and exploring ideas through film, theatre and words.

Cinema Feminista: Blue Black Permanent
Friday 14 October (free)
3.30pm (book through the CCA, Sauchiehall St)

A very rare opportunity to see Margaret Tait's debut film, Blue Black Permanent. A haunting and magical film about a daughter's attempts to come to terms with her mother's mysterious death. This is a delicate and poetic work of intense emotion. With special guests and time for discussion.

Dreamscapes
Thursday 6 October
11am at Kelvingrove Art Gallery & Museum (free)
Part of the Scottish Mental Health Arts and Film Festival, this workshop provides an opportunity to recall any special memories or dreams and illustrate them by creating a scrapbook page using creative paper, gems and embellishments.

This workshop explores how you can increase wellbeing by recalling cherished memories or dreams that bring back positivity and a brighter outlook on life.

Body Talk
Monday 17 October,
11am to 2pm (free)
Our Body Talk events use film to generate discussion about women's health. This forth event will focus on how women's health is affected by poverty, in particular fuel poverty. We will be showing a film, before having an audience discussion and ending with a practical workshop and information.

Scottish Women's Aid 35th Anniversary Exhibition
Launches Monday 28

November, 6pm to 7.30pm
This exhibition has been organised to celebrate the 35th anniversary of Scottish Women's Aid. Using photographs, film and memorabilia it will highlight the work undertaken to address the issue of domestic abuse in Scotland. The exhibition will encompass the campaigns, legislative and policy breakthroughs and developing understanding of the issue over the lifetime of the organisation.

Launch event is on Monday 28 November, and the exhibition will run until 10 December. Come and see it at the library anytime, Monday to Friday, 9.30am-4.30pm

She Settles in the Shields Publication
Launch

Thursday 27 October
She Settles in the Shields provides a unique opportunity to meet the women who travelled to Scotland from all over the world, in search of family, love and security. Told in their own words, the women reveal a fascinating story of hope, isolation, warm welcomes, cold weather, racism and the quest for acceptance and integration.

Many of these women have made significant contributions to the Pollokshields community, witnessing major changes along the way.

Time and venue to be confirmed. Contact us to go on the guestlist. info@womenslibrary.org.uk

Festivals, Launches and Screenings

A packed programme of exciting and inspiring events

Glasgay! Lesbian Activism on Screen: Saturday 5 November, 2pm to 4pm (free)

In 1997 lesbian activist Jackie Forster was featured in the BBC series 'The Day that Changed my Life'. This session provides a rare opportunity to see this documentary, which explores how a lesbian love affair in 1958 changed Jackie's life. As well as founding the UK lesbian publication Sappho, Jackie Forster also set up the Lesbian Archive in London, now based at GWL. There will also be a chance to learn more about Jackie's activism and to see items from her own collection. A free exhibition on Jackie Forster will be also on show at the Library throughout Glasgay!

Glasgay! Lesbian Avengers Event Tuesday 8 November, 6pm to 7.30pm (£3/free)

Lesbian Avengers and other unruly women: a workshop exploring lesbian activism in Glasgow Women's Library's collections,

Come along to hear about the history of key lesbian campaigns including the Glasgow branch of the Lesbian Avengers in the fight for equality, and if you were involved then let us know and record your story.

Using the objects from the Lesbian Archive as inspiration, there will also be an opportunity to make your own campaign materials – badges, whistles and attitude welcome!

Women Leading Through Reading Launches October (free)

Would you like to be involved in a reading circle with other women in your local community?

Would you like to develop your reading skills and your leadership skills?

This is a new project developed in Glasgow Women's Library to support women across Glasgow to create reading circles in their community. After a four week training programme women will be supported to identify venues for meeting, advertising, support in their community and how to access books. The reading circles will be a fun way to socialize & make new friends whilst reading and discussing books. The project launches in October 2011, but please contact us early to book your place.

Check out our 'Scotland Wide' pages for more GWL and festival activity across the country.

Launch of the Necropolis Women's Heritage Walk Map Sunday 19 September, 1pm to 3pm (free)

This Doors Open weekend we are thrilled to be launching the third in our ground-breaking series of free Women's Heritage Walk maps. This map charts some of the highlights of our Necropolis Women's Heritage Walk and plots the resting places and histories of heroines lost at sea, 'City Mothers' who gave their all for Glasgow, witch-finders, the Queen of The Gypsies and other 'monstrous regiments' of women.

The launch will be marked by a guided walk with some of the map's researchers and its editor, Heather Middleton. A tour that digs the dirt on Victorian society, unearths women's achievements and exhumes the history of some of the women buried in the Glasgow Necropolis. Book through the website or contact the library.

For your copy of the map pick one up on your next visit to GWL or download it from our website.

Image taken from the GWL archive, Jackie Forster and Sappho Collection

Festivals, Launches and Screenings

A packed programme of exciting and inspiring events

BME Women Only Film Screenings

An opportunity to watch BME themed films followed by an informal discussion. Popcorn and soft drinks will be provided!

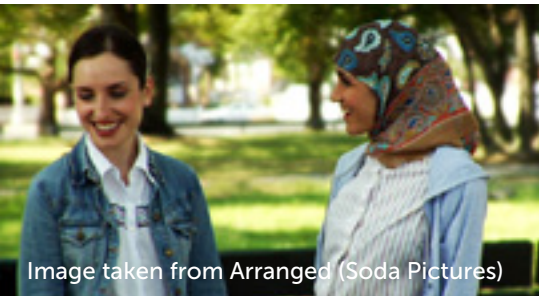

Image taken from Arranged (Soda Pictures)

Arranged Tuesday 20 September 12.30pm to 2pm

Based on a true story, this charming and original romantic comedy focuses on two young New York women with a lot more in common than first meets the eye...Rochel, an orthodox Jew, and Nasira a Muslim Women, meet as first year teachers at a Brooklyn Public school. Over the course of a year they learn to see their superficial differences and form a unique bond over their shared experiences of ups and downs of arranged marriage.

West is West Tuesday 18 October 12pm to 2pm

Salford, North of England, 1975. The now much diminished, but still claustrophobic and dysfunctional, Khan family continues to struggle for survival. Sajid, the youngest Khan, the runt of the litter, is deep in pubescent crisis under heavy assault both from his father's tyrannical insistence on Pakistani tradition, and from the fierce bullies in the schoolyard. So, in a last, desperate attempt to 'sort him out', his father decides to pack him off to Mrs Khan No. 1 and family in the Punjab, the wife and daughters he had abandoned 35 years earlier. It is not long before Ella Khan (Mrs Khan No. 2) with a small entourage from Salford, England, swiftly follows to sort out the mess, past and present.

Interested in film? Come along to our Women Make History workshop visiting the Scottish Screen Archives (more info in the 'Women Make History' pages)

Contact us on 0141 248 9969 or email info@womenslibrary.org.uk for more information on any of our events and activities.

National Poetry Day: Rhyme for a Reason Thursday 6 October, 6pm to 7.30pm

Come along to the library and share in poems of all sorts that will inspire and excite. Celebrating National Poetry Day with women's poetry that lifts the spirits, makes us laugh and generally has a positive impact on our lives. Why not visit the library beforehand to dip into our collection and find a gem to share with others.

"I can't say enough how much I've enjoyed the Cinema Feminista film course. But the most important aspect has been the super warm positive welcome there is every time from the staff." Participant on Cinema Feminista Course

Scotland Wide

Bringing GWL learning to a location near you

Wigtown Book Festival

Every year the Wigtown Book Festival brings a range of fantastic activities to Scotland's Book Town and GWL is a part of it!

Hysterical Women & Graphic Girlz Exhibition (free) Wigtown Library, 23

September to 2 October

The commix and graphic novels scene was traditionally dominated by men, but women began seriously challenging this in the 1970s and we are now seeing more and more women authors. This collection and exhibition from Glasgow Women's Library includes a diverse range of fascinating, challenging and very funny graphic novels and commix from the 1970s to the present day.

Hysterical Women & Graphic Girlz: An Illustrated Talk (free)

Friday 30 September, 2pm at Wigtown Library

To complement our exhibition at Wigtown Library, Glasgow-based illustrator and zine-maker Heather Middleton will give an illustrated talk on the history of graphic novels and zines by women authors.

Heather has a great interest in interest in the history of girls' comics and her zines include Honeypears and Period (an "irregular monthly") and she contributes to regular Glasgow anthology Team Girl Comic. Her work recently featured in the show Telling Stories at Glasgow's Market Gallery alongside work by David Shrigley, Frank Quitely and other artists influenced by comics.

Herstory Scrapbooking Session Monday 26 September, 10am to 2pm, venue to be confirmed

Use a fabulous range of creative paper, gems and embellishments to create a scrapbook page to capture special moments in your life. You can also create a lovely scrapbook page dedicated to a woman in your life or in Wigtown's past or present. Follow our examples or create your own designs and add your own images and stories. In this session you will create one scrapbook page to take home and frame or start your own book.

Wigtown Women's Walk Group: Podcast Launch

Monday 26 September 2pm to 2.30pm at ReadingLasses (free)

The Wigtown women's history walk was launched in March 2010 and has been in great demand ever since. The group of volunteers who created the walk have now created a downloadable podcast of the walk and this event will celebrate its launch.

Wigtown Women's History Walk Monday 26 September 2.30pm to 3.30pm from ReadingLasses (free)

This fantastic guided walk, created by local women, charts the history and achievements of Wigtown women.

Activities for Young Women

Monday 26 September, all day at Kaos Café and other venues (free)

There will be a range of activities for young women in the Wigtown Book Festival. Contact Morag at GWL for more information.

Contact us on 0141 248 9969 or email info@womenslibrary.org.uk for information on these and all our events and activities. More Scotland wide events over the page...

Women from Clydebank visit the Glasgow School of Art Degree Show

Scotland Wide

Bringing GWL learning to a location near you

Memories of our Mothers, Future Dreams (free)

Monday 10 and Monday 17 October, 1pm to 3pm at Ferguslie Park Library, Paisley, Renfrewshire

Part of the Scottish Mental Health Arts and Film Festival, these oral history sessions will focus on memories and recollections of women – whether it is memories of your own life and upbringing or the memories of a woman who has influenced or inspired you – mother, grandmother, aunt, friend. This is your chance to tell your story. The sessions are very informal and no previous experience is necessary. Both workshops are open to men and women and all ages are welcome. Pre-booking essential

Living Classrooms

Wednesday 14 September and Monday 19 September, 9.30am to 2pm (free)

A chance for local women to take part in creative learning in an outdoor environment in the Southside of Glasgow. Children also welcome. For more information contact Syma at the Library.

Creative Walking

Various locations in Inverness, September & October (free)

Autumn walks for women and their families. A series of easy walks to beautiful locations in and around Inverness suitable for all ages. Come along and try out our digital cameras to capture what you find – with fun, creative learning activities for all ages. Transport will be arranged. (With support from Highland Council Ranger Service)

We will also have talks and workshop activities on developing a women's heritage walk at the Dunoon Cowal Walking Festival in October 2011, contact us for info.

Women's History

Taster workshops
Various dates in September at Centre 81 Braes Road, Clydebank, These workshops will introduce you to women's history. Come along and find out about women's history in Scotland and Clydebank, see some objects from the library archive and meet some of the learners from the Clydebank women's history group. Contact us to confirm dates.

Become a Women's History Detective with Researching Women's History Courses in various locations*

It doesn't matter if you've never done anything like this before, these courses are suitable for beginners and will show you how to research women's history in your local area.

Centre 81, Clydebank
1pm to 3pm, 10 weeks from Wednesday 5 Oct
Would you like to find out more about women in the Blitz, the suffragettes in Clydebank, the Singer factory strikers, and women who worked in the shipyards? Or maybe there is local woman from Clydebank's past you would like to know more about. Who knows, you might uncover a new Clydebank heroine!

Dumbarton Library, 10 week course, starting October (dates tbc)

Would you like to find out more about women's history in Dumbarton? The suffragettes, women in the Blitz, women in the Co-operative movement, singers, housewives, political campaigners - or maybe you know of a local woman whose history should be remembered. Who knows, you might discover a new Dumbarton heroine!

*Supported by ILA Scotland learning accounts. If you have an ILA account please call us with your number to book. If not contact Morag for more info.

GWL group visit to Mugdock Country Park

Getting Involved

How you can take part and contribute

Joining and Booking How do I book an event?

To attend an event or course you have to join the Library: this is really easy to do and is completely FREE! Just complete a form to receive your borrowers card and we will post this out to you. Forms can be completed online, or you can call in & see us to fill one out.

Why do I have to join to book an event?

Once you join the library you will be given your unique GWL number: this number relates to your information on our confidential system. This means you can register your details once rather than every time you book on to an event and for future bookings you just need to give us your GWL number. Easy! Even better, having your GWL number also means that you can borrow books and have access to our fabulous collection.

What are the different prices next to events?

While a lot of our events are free, we do ask for a small contribution towards some of our learning events. Where you see prices listed against an event these generally fall under 2 categories: Full Price for people who feel that they can afford to pay a few pounds to attend events and want to contribute to the library's work, and Subsidised Rates/Free for students, people on a low income, unemployed or in receipt of benefits, we do not ask for proof of this, it is done on a trust basis and you self-evaluate your situation. GWL Friends can access all our learning programmes for free.

All the money we receive helps us in providing events and courses, and directly supports the work of Glasgow Women's Library.

Why is it important to book first?

It is important for us to know how many people to expect at all events as this impacts on planning the spaces we use and how many staff and biscuits and teabags we need! It is also important so that we can ensure you have all the details you need about an event. It is also just as important for you to cancel a place in advance if you can't attend as we often have waiting lists for events: it's a shame if someone misses out on an event they would have loved to attend.

Volunteer with GWL

Volunteers have always played a central role in growing the work of the library and we are excited to now have a dedicated Volunteer Co-ordinator working across a cluster of 4 organisations of which GWL is the lead partner.

Can you help?

We are looking for volunteers to help us with the following tasks:

- Reception
- Administration duties, in particular monitoring the success of events and workshops
- Capturing and digitally storing women's oral histories (interviews, video and sound recording)
- Helping out with workshops, projects, and events in Glasgow and across Scotland
- Joining our women's heritage walks tour guiding team
- Promoting the work of GWL using Twitter, blogging and Flickr
- Helping us to fundraise by selling some of our vintage books online
- Library cataloguing
- Helping to sort, list and re-house our archives

Volunteering at GWL can help you to make a difference and gain new skills and experience. You will meet new people, access training, and we can pay for travel expenses.

If you are interested in learning new skills and sharing your experience and expertise with us please get in touch.

GWL Learner Forum Monday 19 September & Monday 14 November

We welcome everyone who has been coming along to learning, events and activities at GWL to come along and share their views and ideas with other Library learners and members of the GWL Learning Team.

The Learner Forum is a friendly, informal way to meet other learners, have a say in what goes into our programmes, find out about how to get more involved in the life of GWL and help us improve our learning, services and resources. We provide the refreshments - just bring your views and ideas.

Contact us on 0141 248 9969 or email info@womenslibrary.org.uk visit us at 15 Berkeley Street, Glasgow G3 7BW. Find us on Facebook and Twitter (@gwlkettle)